Inteck, Inc. “Improving Results Through Strategic IT Investments”

DENVER, COLORADO, January 10, 2006. Inteck, an information technology (IT) consulting firm for the healthcare industry offers a three-part white paper on “Improving Results Through Strategic IT Investments.” This white paper explores three areas of how technology can improve a hospital’s labor efficiency and productivity:

- Clinical Operations (ex: Nursing, Physicians and ER) – Part 1
- Financial Operations (ex: Contract Management, Administration and Registration and Accounts Payables and Material Management)- Part 2
- IT Operations (ex: Training, Help desk, Network)- Part 3

An excerpt from part 1: “Many healthcare executives look at technology as a cost of doing business. However, investment in strategically chosen technology¹ can enhance revenue or lower operational costs of a community hospital. So how can this investment pay off or reduce costs for your hospital? Keep reading!”

This white paper can be obtained by visiting <http://www.inteck-inc.com/ITInvestWP.pdf> or by emailing Info@Inteck-Inc.com. The first part will be emailed immediately to you and the subsequent parts will be emailed in the following days. Do not miss this valuable information!
